Democratic Meeting.

There will be a Democratic Meeting at the State House, on Tuesday evening next.

Addresses will be delivered by Hon. John L. Robinson, Joseph E. McDonald and others. Subjects.—Nebraska, Temperance, and politics in general.

Democratic State Convention.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, held in Indianapolis on Thursday, February the 2nd, 1854, it was unanimously

Resolved, That a Democratic State Convention be held in the city of Indianapolis on Wednesday, the 24th of May next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, viz: Secretary of State, Auditor of State, Treasurer of State, and Superintendent of Public Instruction; and that the several counties in the State be requested to send one delegate for every two hundred Democratic votes given at the Presidential election of 1852, and also one additional delegate for every fractional vote over one hundred. Provided, That every county shall be entitled to at least two delegates.

W. J. BROWN,

Chairman State Central Com.

J. B. NORMAN, Secretary.

Desperate.

Whiggery, under the galvanizing process of Abolition, is becoming desperate. Col. Schouler, a Boston federalist, who edits the Cincinnati Gazette, speaks of those Northern Representatives who support the Nebraska bill, as traitors, villains, thieves, and miserable sneaks.

The New York Tribune in advising resistance to the bitter end, uses the following language, which smacks a good deal of desperation:

"Resistance to the last. Better that confusion should ensue—better that Congress break up in wild disorder—may, better that the Capital itself should blaze with the torch of the incendiary, or fall and burn all its inmates beneath its crumbling ruins—than that this perfidious and wrong should be finally established."

War, famine, and pestilence, or any dire evil, rather than that the people of the territories be permitted to make their own laws, and establish their own institutions. This is old fashioned federalism, revamped with abolition. A comely, sweet tempered party, offering great inducements to new converts. The army swore terribly in Flanders, that distinguished chronicler of passing events, Uncle Toby. It was, however, nothing to the awful imprecations of whiggery over the Nebraska bill. Schouler and Greeley, Giddings and Gerrit Smith would throw in to the shade all the little Flanders' corporals in the way of "cussing." Well, it is no doubt a great relief to them. Poor fellows.

As we Expected.

Oliver T. Jones, the Temperance candidate for Senator in Wayne County, declines. We predicted he would. Here is his card:

CENTREVILLE, May 15, 1854.

EDITOR WAYNE COUNTY JOURNAL: Some time since at the solicitation of my whig friends, I consented to the use of my name before the Whig County Convention, in connection with the office of State Senator. Since that time, the Temperance Convention, without any agency of mine, (and in violation of my sense of propriety,) nominated me for the same office. And done as it was, I felt that it was not incumbent on me either to accept or decline it. I say now, as heretofore, that if not nominated by the approaching Whig convention, I shall not be a candidate. I am not the man to aid in the disorganization of the Whig party; and whether nominated or not, I will be found in October next, (as heretofore,) acting with the Whig party.

OLIVER T. JONES.

This card shows very conclusively the motives of Mr. Jones. It sticks out like a knot on a tree. He is a good temperance man, but with him prohibition is the minor consideration—whiggery the major. He is not the man to disorganize the whig party, oh no! His sense of propriety revolts at the idea. Wayne is a whig county, pure and unadulterated; whiggery must be the issue in that old Gibraltar; but in Marion and Dearborn, and other Democratic counties, "all party considerations must be merged in the great issue of prohibition." Democrats, do you see the game? If you do, be careful that you don't play into the hands of your enemies. Nominate your candidates; let them be good and true men, temperate men, men who will obey instructions—vote for them, and elect them. Don't vote whiggery under the thin veil of prohibition. If you do, you will get a stone.

H. J. Shomberg.

This gentleman is one of the Maine Law candidates for Representative in Wayne county. He claims to be a Democrat, but to secure the Whig and abolition temperance vote he takes occasion to denounce the Nebraska bill. Now we have no objection to Mr. Shomberg's temperance views, but when he panders to the combined opposition, by denouncing an important measure of the Administration, we say to fair Democratic friends in Wayne, mark him. Better have a full blooded Whig, than such a pretended Democrat.

John W. Hawkins, the Whig Temperance lecturer is laboring on Governor Dana of Maine at a terrible rate. Whiggery combined and defeated Governor Hubbard of that State, because he opposed the famous liquor law. All right in the eyes of Mr. Hawkins and his employers. No complaint. A word against him might destroy the "harmony of the party." What hypocrisy.

Marion County Democratic Convention.

At a Mass Meeting of the Democrats of Marion county, held at the Court House, in Indianapolis, on Saturday, May 20th, on motion JAMES JOHNSON, was appointed President, and AUSTIN H. BROWN, and JOHN S. SPAN, selected as Secretaries.

The following resolution was offered by Major A. F. Morrison, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Delegates to the State Convention from this county, be instructed to use their efforts to procure the re-nomination of the present officers of State, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, under the belief that they have been faithful, competent and worthy officers and deserving a re-election.

Maj. A. F. Morrison offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Marion County adhere to their old and well established principles without regard to any new issues, under the belief that every question of expediency, ethics, or morals, should stand upon its own merits, without adding to, or diminishing from the Democratic creed.

Adopted unanimously.

Resolved, That we have ever sustained the doctrine of the responsibility of the Representative to his constituents, and believe in the right of the people to instruct their servants and in the duty of the Representatives to implicitly obey the will of those who have placed them in power; and under these views we advise our political friends, if they desire to do so, to express their approbation or disapprobation of a prohibitory liquor law upon their tickets, as a rule of action to their members of the Legislature.

Adopted unanimously.

Resolved, That this Convention is in favor of that principle contained in the Bill for the organization of the territories of Nebraska and Kansas, which gives to the inhabitants of those Territories the right to decide for themselves what kind of a State Constitution best suits their condition, and what institutions and regulations, not incompatible with the Constitution of the United States, will most conduce to their happiness and prosperity.

Adopted unanimously.

Resolved, That this Convention is distinctly opposed to that provision of the Nebraska Bill, commonly known as the "Clayton amendment," which makes a distinction between native born inhabitants and foreigners, and are gratified that the efforts of the Democracy in Congress have been successful in expunging that odious feature from the Bill.

Unanimously adopted.

On motion of Dr. Ellis, the proceedings were directed to be printed in the State Sentinel, Volks Blatt and Erie Press.

The Convention then adjourned.

JAMES JOHNSON, President.

AUSTIN H. BROWN, Secretary.

J. S. SPAN, Secretary.

We are indebted to Hon. W. H. English for a copy of his very able and patriotic speech on the Nebraska bill. We regret that the press on our columns in publishing the proceedings of Democratic Conventions in the counties will compel us to delay its publication for a short time. The Union thus notices the speech:

"We this morning print the speech of Mr. English, of Indiana, delivered in the House of Representatives, in favor of the Nebraska bill. It is needless for us to direct attention to its facts, its arguments, and its high national tone. Direct and orthodox it abounds with useful and practical information, and will be read with gratification and pleasure by the true friends of constitutional principles. Mr. English is a new member, from a free State, and this is his first elaborated speech. He is the embodiment of a stern and sterling democracy, and we are glad to believe that his many course promises to be approved by his constituents. Already have two of the counties in this district not only pronounced in favor of the principles of the Nebraska bill, but also in favor of his re-nomination to Congress. His course upon Nebraska follows the unmistakable direction of democratic opinion in Indiana, and a decided majority of his colleagues in both branches of Congress are known to sympathize with him. Like all public men who promptly face the crisis, and look to the right instead of to the results, he has done his duty like a democrat, and calmly awaits the verdict of the people.

Democratic Convention.

At a Democratic Convention held at the Court House in Bowling Green, Ky. County, on the 15th day of May, 1854, Col. John A. News was called to the chair, George Donham Esq. was appointed Secretary, and W. E. Houston, Esq. was appointed as a committee to draft the object of the meeting, and on the 16th day of May, J. M. Hanna, J. J. Lanning and A. Donham were appointed a committee to draft and report resolutions expressive of the sense of this Convention; and afterwards, J. M. Hanna, Chairman of said Committee, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we concur in suggestions which have been made as to the propriety of holding a Congressional Convention, but not as to the time of the meeting of that convention; but most positively dissent to the place. We insist upon that Convention meeting at the most central point in the District, to-wit: Bowling Green.

Resolved, That we recommend our delegates, to exercise great prudence in making a selection—and if it appears that no big gun can be picked out for the service, who is not somewhat spry, that they be dropped, in this emergency, to look within our own borders for an instrument that will make clear fire, if such can be found.

Resolved, That the clause of our new Constitution, requiring the people to elect the Judges of the Courts is wrong, or else the very late action of the Executive in attempting to forestall and prevent the free exercise of choice, in such matters, by the people, is wrong.

Resolved, That we hereby appoint four delegates, to attend the State Convention on the 24th inst., to be held at Indianapolis, to-wit: Oliver Ash, Wm. K. Houston, David Sunk and Abijah Donham.

Resolved, That we appoint two delegates from each township to attend the District Convention to be held in this place, to-wit: Van Buren—John Poll and Wesley Davis; Dick Johnson—F. B. Yocum, Moses Harvey, Posey—Alfred West, M. P. Carter. Jackson—Jas. Short, Amos Hedge, Cass—Col. J. R. Nees, Fred. Aldrich—Washington—Geo. Pinney, Jas. M. Hanna. Sugar Ridge—C. W. Moss, L. J. Mitchell, Perry—Geo. Donham, Jonathan Noble, Lewis—Baptist Mattox, J. J. Lanning, Harrison—Elias Cooper and William Edmondson.

Oliver Ash, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this Convention be furnished the editor of the Clay County Advocate, with the request for their publication, and that the State Sentinel be requested to copy.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

J. B. NEES, Pres't.

Geo. DONHAM, Sec'y.

W. K. HOUSTON, Sec'y.

We have at some trouble and research made up the following list of the principal cities and towns in this State with their population in 1850, as given in the United States Census Report, and their estimated population at this time, procured from reliable data. The list will give our readers a pretty good idea of the increase in population and consequently in prosperity of our State. The towns are arranged by counties for easier reference, the counties being arranged in alphabetical order.

SALT RHEUM AND ERYSIPELAS.—These diseases prevail to a much greater extent than is generally supposed, and they appear in so many and various forms, but the Rock Rose has been found to be a preventive and a remedy. Its use has constantly increased the demand, and it is fast becoming the most popular specific for the cure of these prevalent diseases. Read the following certificates which we select from among a score of others, all testifying to its efficacy:

Rev. A. E. Myers—Dear Sir—Having used your Extract of Rock Rose for Salt Rheum, which was especially excruciating from my system by its use, I cheerfully recommend it to any who may have need of relief in similar cases. R. BRYAN JEROME.

New Haven, Ct., Sept. 6, 1851.

This will certify that I have for years suffered with the most obstinate Erysipelas, which it seemed to me, nothing would cure. I was induced to try the Syrup of Rock Rose, which gave me immediate relief, and cured me of a disease from which I never expected to recover. J. JONES.

Southington, Conn., Dec. 1851. may15

IT SHOULD BE UNIVERSALLY KNOWN.—for it is strictly true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhea, cholera morbus, liver complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspectors' weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. This is the fact; think of it! you suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, founded upon experience, resort at once (don't delay a day) to Hoodland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, curative, and invigorant, stands alone and unapproached. General depot, 190 Arch street. We have tried these Bitters, and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above.—Philadelphia City Item.
